

TEACHERS WORKSHOP · MARCH 2010 · CORNING, NY

EXPLORING HUMANITARIAN LAW

• 30 hours of interactive material

- Stand-alone activities and comprehensive modules
- Multimedia resources including testimonials, news accounts, photos and videos
- Case studies from around the world
- Adaptations for all disciplines
- Facts on the protections of the Geneva Conventions and the role of the Red Cross in wartime
- Access to Red Cross resources & guidance

The American Red Cross Greater Steuben Chapter proudly presents a hands-on workshop with the highly acclaimed Exploring Humanitarian Law (EHL) curriculum. Used in over 70 nations, EHL empowers students to respect human life and dignity, navigate ethical dilemmas, and act as global citizens.

Monday, March 8 & 15, 2010

5:30 - 10:00 PM (both nights)

Saturday, March 13, 2010

8:00 - 5:00 PM

Pre-registration required. Space is limited. Visit www.gsredcross.org or call (607) 936-3766

